I further state that there is probable cause to believe that the defendant named above did commit the crime set forth and that probable cause is based on the following facts:

Affiant has statements on 4-22-13 from an accomplice stating that the defendant, Brittany Cearea Irby, did on or about 4-20-13 become a party of a mob with the premeditated purpose and premeditated intent of committing and act of violence upon the victim, D.A.H. The defendant and the other participants in the mob chased the victim and cornered him in a parking lot, restricting his movement and assaulted him causing serious bodily injury that resulted in the victim's death. The accomplice stated the defendant did kick the victim several times and has identified the defendant through a six person photo line-up. This incident occurred at 413 Vardry Street within the city limits of Greenville, S.C.
