The following members of City Council were in attendance: Mayor Knox White, John DeWorken, Lillian Flemming, Ken Gibson, Wil Brasington, Russell Stall, and Dorothy Dowe
5. APPROVAL OF THE MINUTES
April 12, 2021; Approved as submitted
6. COMMUNICATIONS / ANNOUNCEMENTS FROM THE MAYOR AND COUNCIL
7. CITIZENS WISHING TO ADDRESS COUNCIL

Paula Catterall, 1027 S. Main Street, Unit 201, spoke in support of Item 15a stating she would like Council to consider taking steps to protect the essence of Greenville. Ms. Catterall referred to the Greene Apartments as an example and commented on the additional issues it brings including loss of sunlight and television reception, parking, traffic and noise issues, and the need for more green space to handle more dogs.

Chris Bailey, on behalf of the Greater Greenville Association of Realtors, spoke in opposition to Item 15a and stated the organization would be happy to be involved in drafting solutions for the problems being addressed. Mr. Bailey thanked Assistant City Manager Shannon Lavrin and staff for reaching out to the development community for feedback.

Todd Whitlow, on behalf of the Upper State Apartment Association, spoke in opposition to Item 15a and referred to the growth of Greenville, the number of people wanting to move to the City, and concerns regarding housing affordability. Mr. Whitlow stated the group would be happy to serve as a resource in finding solutions.

Jessica Saravia, 115 Atherton Way, Greer, requested the removal of the Wings of Greenville art exhibit saying these statues are inappropriate and not family friendly. Ms.

Saravia stated she has a petition supporting the removal of the statues and she will be sending it to the Arts in Public Places Commission and the exhibition sponsors.

Mayor White stated the exhibition was vetted by the Arts in Public Places Commission and the Carolina Foothills Garden Club, and he hopes everyone views the artwork and judges it for themselves.

Karen Smith, 302 Fairmeadow Way, Greenville, spoke on the growth and benefits of pickleball in Greenville and in support of having more pickleball courts in the area.

Marcie Thaler, 427 Henderson Road, spoke in support of having more pickleball courts in Greenville to allow for tournaments as a means of tourism revenue.

Events and Cultural Affairs Director/Interim Parks and Recreation Director Angie Prosser stated the department is working on renovating and adding pickleball courts to the City as well as identifying the number of courts in the City and around the County.
