MEMORANDUM

TO: Greenville City Council
FROM: Chief of Police, JH Thompson
DATE: May 24, 2021
RE: Request for Emergency Assistance from Chester County Sheriff's Office Pursuant to S.C. Code § 5-7-120

I am providing this memorandum to create a complete record of a request Greenville Police Department received from Chester County Sheriff Max Dorsey at approximately 10:20 p.m. on Sunday, May 23, 2021 as required by S.C. Code Ann. § 5-7-120. Sheriff Dorsey requested emergency assistance of available Greenville Police Department personnel in locating and arresting Tyler Terry who was located in Chester County, South Carolina. Terry was wanted for multiple murders and attempted murders in South Carolina and Missouri and was confirmed to have been armed. Approximately 300 total law enforcement personnel from multiple local, state and federal agencies responded to assist in the location and arrest effort. Terry was arrested mid-morning on today's date. Four members of the Greenville Police Department's Crime Response Team who were on duty last night responded to assist the Chester Sheriff's Office. The officers providing assistance were Mauricio Reyes, Kurt Sittman, Ryan Miller and Nathaniel Hardy.
